短文理解 1

Dear Uncle Ric,

We were very sorry to hear that you are in hospital again, but I feel sure you'll be out and about again soon. It doesn't sound very serious this time according to Auntie Ivy and in any case you have already recovered from the operation so quickly.

Malcolm has been working very hard all this year, because he is sitting some examinations this month and he is determined to study History at the University of Oxford. Although the sun has been shining all day today, he has been sitting at home reading about the history of the French Revolution. Fortunately he loves books, especially history books. He spends all his time and money on books.

James is totally different from his brother. He might be too young to know better. He gets bored with school and studying. But he is very keen on games. He never stays indoors when the weather is reasonably fine, and today he has been playing tennis for hours with his friends. He is fond of football, but tennis is his favorite. He said that he wanted to become a professional player. His mother doesn't really approve.

Robin sends you her love. We are looking forward to hearing from you and seeing you soon. I am sending this letter through the e-mail to Auntie Ivy and she will bring it to the hospital with our best wishes to you for a speedy recovery.

I used to think education was the most important thing in my life. Recently my attitude has begun to change, although I still hold that it is essential for everyone in the world today. As a top junior student in my college, I was asked to make a speech on how to learn English well. Standing in front of the audience facing so many freshmen, I was trembling. I didn't remember any word that I had prepared. I ran out of the conference room without finishing my speech, leaving everyone puzzled. I cried that night in my room, feeling that I was a loser. Studying takes so much of my time that I feel unable to really develop myself. I am just storing knowledge; yet fail to communicate with others. I have received many awards in school, but they don't necessarily reflect anything about me. I don't know how to socialize. When I leave school I fear I will be of no use to society.

I realize that everyone has her or his own way of living. I want to change my lifestyle. Of course I will keep studying. Yet I plan to look for a part time job, which might turn out to be a good chance to get to know society. I still believe that working my hardest does make me happy. I will still stay on in college, but I will not allow it to shelter me from the real world.

31. From this passage, we know that the author _____.
- A. does not think education is the most important thing in her life any more
 - B. thinks that communication with other people is more important than education
 - C. realizes that it is more important to really develop oneself than just to store knowledge
 - D. comes to learn how important it is to make a public speech
32. By saying that she is "a junior student" in her college, the author means that she is _____.
- A. a student in her third year in college
 - B. a very young college student
 - C. younger than most students in college
 - D. shorter than others in college
33. The author thinks the awards she has received _____.
- A. show that she is a top student
 - B. show how much time she has spent in learning
 - C. mean she only knows how to learn, but not how to socialize
 - D. don't necessarily reflect her real self
34. The author fears that she will be of no use to society, mainly because _____.
- A. she feels she is a loser
 - B. she does not know how to communicate with others
 - C. studying takes too much of her time
 - D. she is unable to develop herself
35. Which of the following statements is NOT true according to the passage, when the author says that she wants to find a part-time job?
- A. The job might enable her to get to know society.
 - B. She wants to change her lifestyle.
 - C. Working part time while studying will make her happy.
 - D. She wants to get some shelter from the real world.

When Steven King published his book Riding the Bullet, around two million people downloaded it from the Internet within hours. It was the first time that an electronic book had done big business, and it was a wake-up call for the publishing industry.

An electronic book, or e-book, is simply a version of a book that allows you to store and display it digitally. There are already thousands of classic and best-selling titles available on websites such as ebooks.com.

E-book technology allows you to carry around a whole library in a small unit. You can also highlight a word to bring up its definition or increase the font size if you have bad eyesight. In fact, e-book readers are being developed for people who are visually impaired or dyslexic.

Another advantage is that it lets you buy books in segments and carry them around easily, which should appeal to students. In fact, the University of South Dakota is planning to give hand-held devices to all its students to help them in their studies.

However, for all this, the current e-book readers are unlikely to make it big. A recent report predicted sales of just 1.9 million in the next 5 years. And the reason? E-books are more difficult to read and they are just not as attractive as the printed word.

36. The writer warns that the publishing industry should be ready for an important change.

37. E-books will become much cheaper in the near future.

38. One advantage of e-books is that you can find the meanings of individual words easily.

39. Students will use libraries less in the future.

40. Sales of e-books are expected to increase rapidly in the future.

Distance learning is for those who cannot study full time for some reasons. Many of them have a job, and some have to take care of a family. But they can study and meanwhile work or do other things. They can study with the help of a tutor and contact the tutor or other learners when having difficulties. They can study at any time and anywhere. For example, I work in a company during the day, but I am taking a course in law in the evening. I find distance learning is suitable for me.
